Terms and Conditions

R&R Mechanical Services, Inc. (R&R Mechanical)

Replacement Allowance

R&R Mechanical Service Plan (s) are not replacement plans and do not cover replacement of a complete unit, even if the cause of the unit's malfunction can be traced to failure of a part or parts covered by the contract. If the estimate cost of repair exceeds the actual cash value of the unit covered or if the unit is deemed not repairable, R&R Mechanical reserves the right to not repair the unit, and to provide you an allowance toward the purchase of a new unit under the Gold Plan only, in accordance with the schedule listed above. You may receive an allowance to aid in replacement of the unit based on the age of the Equipment and current market value, up to $1500. R&R Mechanical must install the new unit. A replacement allowance can not be given to the customer if the replacement is performed by another company or person. See allowance schedule chart. The products or Equipment to be covered must be in good operating condition at the time of application, and you, the purchaser, must participate in the program for a minimum of ninety (90) days before any residual allowance associated with the replacement of a piece of Equipment is covered.

Limitation of Liability

R&R Mechanical excludes any liability for special, indirect or consequential damages. Liability and the Purchaser's sole remedy for performance or non-performance under these plans is limited to the cost of replacement parts and associated labor as would be required under each plan.

Exclusions

R&R Mechanical shall not be liable or responsible for any claims or charges associated with any loss of, or failure of, the covered equipment that directly or indirectly arises out of any of the following: Power surging, burnouts, black-outs, strikes or electrical circuit overloads; consequential damage resulting from the loss of power, light, heat, steam or refrigeration. Fire, smoke, explosion, lighting, hail, wind, exposure to weather and other acts of nature, earth movement including landslide, mudslide, subsidence, earth quake or volcanic eruption, rust, corrosion, and/or sediment damage, flood, freeze, water or other abnormal conditions. Improper installation of the covered equipment or lack of preventative maintenance as recommended by the manufacturer's recall due to error in formula and/or design. Use of the covered equipment in a business or commercial application. Misuse of the covered equipment for any purpose other than intended by the manufacturer. Failure to perform normal, routine or seasonal maintenance, adjustments and/or service as may be outlined in the installation and servicing instructions or owner's manual. Vandalism and rodent, animal, or insect damage is not covered. Additional equipment not covered under service plans are as follows: all exterior components of the equipment, including filters and air cleaners, lubricants, ductwork, air flow, drain lines, humidifier, dehumidifiers, and cabinetry and/or other aesthetics; supplementary power sources, such as batteries, etc.; solar heaters, heat pump water heaters, water heaters connected to wood burning stoves, geothermal and/or water source units, commercial rooftop and packaged terminals units; fuel supplies; interconnecting tubing fittings and sensors; any lightning fixtures or bulbs, power cords, and/or other additional items accompanying the equipment.

Additional Exclusions on parts and services not covered

R&R Mechanical service plans only cover equipment that is in good working condition at the time the plan takes effect. R&R Mechanical service plan contracts do not cover damage caused by Purchaser abuse. R&R Mechanical reserves the right to reject the coverage. R&R Mechanical will not cover a part if or an acceptable alternative part is no longer available through normal procurement practices. R&R Mechanical will not handle or remove suspected asbestos material or lead. R&R Mechanical service plans only cover the services of one service technician per service call. Drainage and/or refilling of hydronic systems are not covered, unless it is done in conjunction with a plan-covered part replacement. R&R Mechanical service plans do not cover start-up services, routing or seasonal turn on/turn off, inspections and operational checks, or cleaning and relighting of pilot lights. Operational and safety checks are included under the Central Air Conditioning/Heat Pump Tune-up Coverage plans as specified under these options. R&R Mechanical will not cover Lennox Pulse or Hydro Pulse Heating units. R&R Mechanical reserves the right to reject any Agreement if upon inspection by our serviceman, equipment is found in such condition that service will be unsatisfactory to both parties.

Cancellation/Non-Renewal by R&R Mechanical Services, Inc.

R&R Mechanical shall have the right to cancel or not to renew any service plan under the R&R Mechanical Service Plan (s) by giving not less than 30 days prior written notice to you, the Purchaser at the address designated in the Purchaser's confirmation letter. At the time of notification, R&R Mechanical shall not return to Purchaser, the amount, if any by which the remaining proportionate share of fees paid by Purchaser to R&R Mechanical exceeds the following amount of claims paid by R&R Mechanical covered repairs and/or replacement. No service will be rendered under the R&R Mechanical service plan (s) if the customer has a past due account.

Service Call Terms

Replacement of any parts may be made with the parts of like kind and quality. Once the repair has been completed, the service technician will ask that you sign a completed form. Your signature states that the work listed was completed. R&R Mechanical reserves the right to perform post installation inspection of the repaired equipment. R&R Mechanical reserves the right to make all calls during regular working hours. Any calls performed after normal working hours (8 am—5 pm) will be billed at the standard rate of the Purchaser's service Plan. R&R Mechanical will obtain Purchaser's authorization to perform work not covered by R&R Mechanical's service plan. Purchasers agrees to give R&R Mechanical prompt authorization to make repairs recommended by a service technician, if the equipment is to be under the Service Plan.

Manufacturer's Warranty & Insurance

R&R Mechanical Manufacturer's warranty Plan covers manufacturer's parts and labor for the warranty product only. If a repair or replacement is needed outside the warranty, then charges will apply accordingly. R&R Mechanical shall not be responsible for any repairs which may still be covered under the original equipment manufacturer's warranty or would be covered under homeowner's, fire, or other insurance.

Payment/Charges for Non-Covered work

It is the Purchaser's responsibility to pay the service technician for any and all charges which are not covered under these contracts. This includes, without limitation, payment for service calls when no repairs are made, cleaning and relighting pilot lights, resetting of tripped safety devices, fuses and/or circuit breaker (internal and external) and diagnostic assessments. In the event the service technician determines that the repair required is a non-covered part, the Purchaser may choose to have the repair done at the price quoted by the service technician, but any such repair is not covered under the R&R Mechanical service plan fee. If the equipment is inaccessible or unsafe for the service by one service technician there is a charge for any additional service technician needed. Customer education visits are not covered.

Customer Cancellation

This plan applies only to you, the Purchaser and Equipment you have covered under the plan. You may cancel the Plan at any time after 45 days, for any cause, with prior written notice to R&R Mechanical, R&R Mechanical shall return to Purchaser the amount, if any, after the 45 day obligation expires and the remaining proportionate share of fees paid by Purchaser to R&R Mechanical exceeds the following: the amount of claims paid by R&R Mechanical for covered repairs, annual maintenance, service, and/or replacements and a $25 administration fee.
